TEACHERS FOR NEXT YEAR.

The School Directors Conclude to Make the List Public.

But Mary Changes from Last Year—A Protest against Theatricals in the High School Assembly Hall.

A special meeting of the school board was held last evening, President Wilson in the chair. Director Ladd absent.

Applications for positions as teachers were received from Miss May Shockley, Miss Josephine Husband, May Kennedy, Mattie Dudley, Miss E. Lee and Mattie L. Aram.

Miss L. C. Stout submitted a report of the last teachers, which was filed.

A QUESTION OF TWO RESIDENCES.

From Prof. A. Marquam, returning a bill rendered him for tuition for his two children, who attend the Falling school. Judge Marquam claims a residence in this city and one two miles from here, on Marquam's hill, which is out of the limits of the school district. His children live at the latter place. After some debate it was voted to accept the bill, and to pay it in the present. It appears the parents of other children living on the hill complain against Marquam's children attending the city schools free of tuition, and allege that their children are deprived of every advantage because they are poor.

AGAINST HIGH SCHOOL ENTERTAINMENTS.

Director Thompson called up the question of the giving of exhibitions in the assembly hall of the High school. He said people complained that it kept their children up late at night, when they ought to be in bed. These entertainments were given for the purpose of paying for the furnishing of the hall. He thought that as the school board had no money, the district ought to pay for the furnishings of the hall, in fact ought to have done so in the first place. He moved that the sum of $120 be appropriated for this purpose.

Mr. Dodd said he only objected to appropriating $120 for this purpose, as the ground principally that the district was not in a condition to prevent the expenditure of this amount of money. If they did not they would be in a position to affect other matters.

Mr. Thompson said the school board was complaining bitterly, and it was the time they paid the whole thing up.

Superintendent Crawford said there would not be any more school entertainments this year.

Mr. Dodd said this would carry it along until September or after, and by that time they might be better able to pay.

After further discussion of this character, the matter was laid on the table.

TEACHERS FOR NEXT YEAR.

Following is the list of teachers selected for the ensuing term so far. This list is not complete, and will not be completed until the end of the term. None of the teachers elected have yet been assigned.

Director Thompson brought up the matter up again, and thought it was better that the list be made public.

He said he was aware of the fact that two meetings had been held, and because the result of them had not been made known were likely to believe that something very unusual had occurred.

Directors Dodd, Durham and Wilson also agreed that perhaps it was the better plan, and to state that the list was not yet complete. It was also agreed that this would enable outside applicants to know what had been done with the list.

THE HOLLADAY ESTATE.

AN ARRANGEMENT BY WHICH $300,000 WORTH OF PROPERTY IS TO BE SOLD.

A stipulation was filed in the U. S. circuit court yesterday in the case of A. G. Bogart, J. L. Bogart, J. L. Parker, John Banks, J. P. Quinn, James Carpenter, George C. Foster & Syman Manufacturing Company vs. Ben Holladay, Joseph Holladay, George Weidler, Mr. G. W. Thompson and C. R. Bellinger, by which it is agreed that plaintiffs and defendants that the restraining order heretofore granted by the court against the defendant, G. W. Weidler, shall remain in force for sixty days, and that the application of defendant for a receiver shall be continued for the same period. It was further agreed that if any time within sixty days the parties shall find a purchaser for certain property described in "let 2" for not less than $300,000, then the restraining order shall be vacated and defendants

The claimants of the plaintiffs above mentioned amount to about $40,000, and there are prior claims amounting to some $160,000. The property included in "let 2" consists of the Holladay addition, which comprises 170 blocks, and the stock of C. R. Bellinger, all of which the $200,000 has been offered for this property, and refused, but as plaintiffs are bound to have their money this stipulation has been agreed to, and the property will probably be sold before long.

THE STAGE.

THE NEW MARKET THEATER.—The return of the Morrison company was inaugurated last night by the production of Steele Mackaye's four-act drama, "Won at Last." The play is an exceedingly strong one, keeping up the interest without flagging from the first scene to the last. In plot it is simple, though absorbing. John Fleming, a blase man of the world, in obedience to the direction of his father's will, has married a lonely, innocent girl, Grace Alden, who fairly blossomed, though he bore no especial fondness for her. He endeavored to thwart a conversation between her husband and his best friend, Dr. Sterling, Grace learns, to her horror and despair, that her husband simply honor and respect her as a true woman, but as for love, he has lost the idea of loving any woman. Her womanly nature impresses her position as an unloved wife, and she determines not to live with him; but, in a strong scene between them, he persuades her, out of social considerations, to appear to the world as the wife she returns to him. She goes back to him he has prepared for her, and so many does she bear her life that he grows to love her with the whole heart. Meanwhile one of his old mistresses, Madame Sophie, appears upon the scene and reminds him of his former relations. He is shocked, but she is his wife, and orders him to leave her from his home. In revenge he has her beaten, and she bears her punishment as an unloved wife; but, in a strong scene between them, he persuades her, out of social considerations, to appear to the world as the wife she returns to him. She goes back to him he has prepared for her, and so many does she bear her life that he grows to love her with the whole heart.
